In addition to this cover sheet, the following materials are required for a complete application:

1. An autobiographical statement---where you grew up, educational history, and a brief description of your faith journey.
2. A proposal and rationale for where you would like to go and what you would hope to gain from such an experience. A significant aspect of the application is assessment of the preliminary thinking and possible plans that the applicant has in mind.
3. Three sermons from internship. A video of one of the sermons is required.
4. Name of internship congregation and pastor (include address and phone).
5. Names of two faculty members for recommendations.
6. A statement of intent to serve in the parish ministry upon completion of year of study.

Submit all materials to Dr. Karoline Lewis (Campus Box Gullixson) by January 31, 2019.
