Theology for Christian Ministry

2481 COMO AVENUE • SAINT PAUL, MN 55108

May, 2019

Dear Members of the Class of 2019,

I am writing on behalf of the staff and editorial board of Word & World and of the entire Luther faculty to offer you our congratulations and best wishes on your coming graduation. We share your joy of achievement and your anticipation of the future.

The faculty is pleased to present graduating students with a free one-year subscription to Word & World. This gift comes directly and personally from the faculty, funded by voluntary contributions. Word & World is chosen as an appropriate gift because of its concern to strengthen and build the connections between seminary and congregation. We take the subtitle seriously: Theology for Christian Ministry.

Your gift subscription can begin with the Summer issue (“Romans,” July 1) or Fall (“Sharing the Gospel”, Oct. 1), but it will not come to you automatically. To accept this gift, please e-mail ww@luthersem.edu with the information requested on the certificate below, or return the certificate by mail or campus mail. In case you are already a subscriber—for which, of course, the angels rejoice!—your gift year will be added to your current subscription.

Also, please continue to inform Word & World promptly whenever your address changes, so that you won’t miss any issues—by e-mail (ww@luthersem.edu), mail, or phone (651-641-3482).

Keep in mind that you can view the contents of past issues and search for particular authors and themes at our website: <http://wordandworld.luthersem.edu>. Currently, the articles in all published issues are available in full text for use online.

We shall miss you, but we are happy to be able to continue the theological conversation through our journal. God be with you.

Sincerely yours,

Mark Granquist
Editor

GRADUATE GIFT SUBSCRIPTION

WORD & WORLD: Theology for Christian Ministry is published by the faculty of Luther Seminary. Published quarterly (January, April, July, and October) since 1981, Word & World’s issues (100+ pages) are each focused on a theme significant for theology and ministry. In addition to the theme articles, each issue offers “Texts in Context” (a preaching help), “Face to Face” (presenting two views on a current controversial issue), and in-depth book reviews.
